

Quotes

“What a school thinks about libraries is a measure of what it thinks about education.” Anonymous

“Library media programs are the best single predictor of test scores among those considered.” Colorado Study

“He that loves reading, has everything within his reach.” William Godwin

“I go into my library and all history rolls before me.” Alexander Smith

“We shouldn’t teach great books; we should teach a love of reading.” B.F. Skinner

“Reading is a dynamic act: the creative coming together of minds.” Waldo Frank

“There is always an easy solution to every problem – neat, plausible and wrong.” H.L. Menken

“Personally I’m always ready to learn, although I do not always like being taught.” Winston Churchill

“A book is the most effective weapon against intolerance and ignorance.” Lyndon Baines Johnson

“Outside of a dog, a book is a man’s best friend; and inside a dog, it’s too dark to read.” Groucho Marx

“Books are friends that never fail me.” Thomas Carlyle

“If you always do what you’ve always done, you’ll always get what you’ve always gotten.” The Indispensable Librarian

“A room without books is like a body without a soul.” Cicero

“Technology won’t replace librarians – librarians who know technology will.” Nancy B. Nassar

“Test scores rise and fall with the fortunes of library media programs.” Colorado Study

“The first rule of staff development: work with the living.” The Indispensable Librarian

“Reading is to the mind, what exercise is to the body.” Sir Richard Steele

“As a predictor of student achievement, access to library media programs is second only to the prevalence of at risk students.” Colorado Study

“If you want to change the world, change the world of a child.” Pat Schroeder

“The more you read, the more you know. The more you know, the farther you’ll go.” Dr. Seuss